

Parents-to-Parents Training: What We Have Learned from Educating Parents.

Paper presented at CLI-Early Childhood Seminars 20 October, Australia.

Rassafiani, M., Walsh, K., Pourmohamadreza-Tajrishi, M., Hojjat, M. (2010).

Abstract:

The session will address the concepts and theories of parents-to-parents training. Parents and conductors' roles will be discussed in relation to other approaches such as family-centred management and peer-training. The session will feature a video clip on parents-to-parents training and participants will be invited to discuss this method and how it might relate to their own settings.
